

Weekend sports wrap-up: Local squads make waves at fourth Manny Flick

Main Line Suburban

Wednesday, April 13, 2011

Under overcast skies and rowing past cherry trees in full bloom, Harriton's novice boats debuted during the fourth Manny Flick/Horvat Series Regatta. Girls and boys each competed in Novice 8+ head races.

[Redacted content]

Radnor (girls) entered four boats in four morning events at the fourth Manny Flick Sunday, and did very well, placing second and first in every event.

The Radnor Freshmen Four boat (consisting of Nina Luker, Susanna Lowy, Olivia Bradberry, Alexis Berg and Audrey Gordon (coxswain)) dominated in their race, finishing more than 26 seconds ahead of the second place boat.

A Radnor Freshmen Eight boat placed second in a heat of five contenders. This freshmen boat included Margot Steely, Maddie Chapin, Maddie Macrone, Sarah Miccolis, Rachel Hochberger, Gabrielle Giangrasso, Griffin Rauscher, Jane Dersimonian and Katie Dillon (coxswain).

The Radnor two varsity boats faced exciting competition in their races. The second Varsity Eight finished just one-hundredth of a second behind first place in a very close (photo-finish) race. Members of the second Varsity Eight boat included Liz Bereznek, Haley Callinan, Greer Howard, Lauren Turner, Rebecca Michelson, Meghan Gerber, Ellen Miller and Abby Raichek (coxswain).

The Radnor Varsity Eight placed first in its race - more than three seconds ahead of the second place boat. This is the second week in a row that the Varsity Eight has placed first in a very competitive race. This winning boat included Sophie Faude (coxswain), Kendall Chapin, Chandler Lally, Sophia Blair, Lexie Katz, Alli Webster, Emma Burke, Hannah Edelman and Kirsten Fitch.